Numb. 6318

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday November 3. to Saturday November 7. 1724.

Lisbon, October 25, N. S.

ON the 12th Instant a very violent Earthquake was felt in this City and the Countries adjacent, but was not attended with any bad Effects. The 15th His Britannick Majesty's Ship the Lyme, Lord Vere Beauclere Commander, arrived in this Harbour from Port-Mahon; as did a Portuguese Man of War the 21st from cruizing upon the Coast. The 22d being the King of Portugal's Birth-Day, his Majesty received the Compliments of the Foreign Ministers and Nobility upon the Occasion.

Madrid, Oct. 30. This Day their Catholick Majesties arrived here at the Palace from St. Ildefonso: Their Majesties stopped upon the Road at a Place called Campillo, and diverted themselves with hunting of Stags and wild Boars; of which they killed several. The Sitting of the Cortes is put off till the 25th of next Month, on account of many Bishops who cannot be here sooner. Don Fernando Verdes Montenegro, Superintendant of the King of Spain's Revenues, and Chief Administrator of the Treasury, has been sent under a Guard to Ciudad Rodrigo, a strong Town on the Frontiers of Portugal, and all his Papers and Effects seized, on account of some Misdemeanors in the Revenue which have been alledged against him; which Allegations are to be examined. On Wednesday last the Queen Widow received the Visits of Condoleance from all the Ladies of Quality at this Court. Her Majesty was veiled all over, and stood in a Room hung with Black, with the Windows shut, and but one Candle lighted, which was upon a Table. All the Ladies passed by one after another, and kissed her Majesty's Hand.

Custom-House, London, Nov. 6, 1724.

Whereas it was advertised in the Gazette of Tuesday last; and in several former Gazettes, that on Wednesday the 11th Instant, the Crown's Title and Interest in several Estates late of Richard Page, Esq; in or near Harrow on the Hill, would be sold by Auction in the Long Room of the Custom-House in Thames-street: This is to give Notice, that the said Sale is deferred, and another Day will be appointed for the same; of which timely Notice will be given in the Gazette.

Advertisements.

WHereas His Majesty has been graciously pleased, by His Letters Patents, to grant unto Thomas Rogers, the sole Use and Benefit of his Invention of a Steel Worm or Rowling Spring, which is highly approved of by several Persons of Quality and others who have made Use of the same, as being of great Service and Ease to be used in hanging of Coaches, Chariots, and several other Carriages: Which said Springs are only to be had at Mr. Robert Sparke's, Ironmonger, the Corner of Catherine-street in the Strand, at reasonable Rates.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, before William Kinaston, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, a House of five Rooms on a Floor, with Out-houses, Coach-houses, and Stables, Dove-house, and other Conveniencies; with a Garden and Orchard well planted with Fruit-Trees, and a Field of about four Acres behind it, Part Freehold and Part Copyhold of Inheritance, at Acton, in the County of Middlesex, being about six Miles from London, late the Estate of Captain Joseph Emes, deceased.

PUrsuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, the Capital Seat or Mansion House of George Venables Vernon, Esq; an Infant, with the Outhouses, Gardens and Park, at Sudbury, in the County of Derby, and such of the Demesne Lands thereto belonging, as may be thought proper to be held therewith, are to Lett to the best Tenant, to be approved of by Mark Thurlton, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Symond's-Inn in Chancery-Lane.

IN pursuance of an Order of the High Court of Chancery, Two of the Eight Proprietorships of the Province of Carolina, viz. that which was originally Edward Earl of Clarendon's, and the other which was originally Sir William Berkley's, are to be sold before Mark Thurston, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Symond's-Inn, Chancery Lane; where Particulars may be had.

Whereas